

Dionne Perry

Media Questions

1. Why is it important for teens to know about or be concerned about credit scores? They are a long time from purchasing a car or house.
2. What do teens usually know about credit scores and getting good credit?
3. How do they learn about credit? Is this something a parent usually teaches them?
4. Tell us about your background and how it brought you to write on this topic?
5. What are some misconceptions that even adults make about their credit?
6. How can a poor credit score impact a potential job hire?
7. Tell us a bit about your work and education that allows you to be a Credit-ologist and talk about credit to all ages?
8. You have a Credit Ambassador program for teens and adults who work with teens. What is it and how can teens and teachers get involved?
9. Tell us how you have designed the book to capture attention from teens? What questions do you find that teens most often have?
10. What about older kids – 19 – 25? Aren't they the ones that most need this info? Is there another book coming?
11. Do you speak to teen groups in schools...or will you when we are further beyond the pandemic times.?
12. Where is your book available and how can people find out more?

For more information, reviews copies, or an interview with Dionne Perry,
Contact Sharon Castlen Sharon@IntegratedBookMarketing.com 631-979-5990